Pavle Levkovic obtained his J.D. from the University of Toronto Faculty of Law in 2016, and was called to the Ontario Bar in 2017. Prior to joining Glaholt LLP as an associate in 2017, Pavle summered and articulated with a full-service law firm in downtown Toronto. During his articles he had the opportunity to assist with a variety of litigation matters, including motions, examinations, and arbitrations.

During law school, Pavle was a Senior Editor of the Journal of International Law and International Relations, President of the Natural Resources and Energy Law Club, and a research assistant to former Dean Martin Friedland. He was also a Junior Fellow at Massey College. In his third year of law school, Pavle spent a semester on exchange at the Université Jean Moulin Lyon 3 in France where he obtained a Certificate in International and European Business Law.

Pavle holds an M.A. in Linguistics and a B.A. from the University of Toronto, Trinity College. He is currently a serving member of the Toronto Scottish Regiment, a reserve unit of the Canadian Armed Forces, where he received his Canadian Forces Decoration.
