

LENA WANG, B.S., J.D.

Associate

Glaholt LLP
141 Adelaide Street West
Suite 800
Toronto, Ontario M5H 3L5
Tel: 416 368 8280
Fax: 416 368 3467

lw@glaholt.com

Education

- J.D., Osgoode Hall Law School, 2012
- B.S., Cornell University, 2009
- Called to the Bar of Ontario, 2013

Memberships

- Ontario Bar Association
- Advocates' Society
- Canadian Association of Women In Construction

Lena Wang joined Glaholt LLP as an associate in 2014. Lena has experience working on a variety of disputes related to large infrastructure, industrial and commercial projects. Lena has represented owners, general contractors and architects in proceedings involving liens, trust claims, delay claims and professional negligence claims.

Lena has appeared at all levels of Ontario courts, where she has experience representing clients in all stages of litigation at trial and on appeal.

Lena is an Associate of Canadian Surety Bonding (A.C.S.B.), a designation conferred by the Surety Association of Canada.

Selected Publications

- Wang, "Court of Appeal Highlights Ongoing Gatekeeper Role of Trial Judge in Relation to Expert Evidence" (2017) Legal Update #44, Canadian College of Construction Lawyers
- Wang, "Alberta Court Ends Project Blockade" Construction Law Letter, Vol. 33, No. 5, May/June 2017
- Wang, "When Does a Proposal Turn Into a Contract?" (2015) 31:5 Construction Law Letter
- Wang, "Court Stays Party's Own Action in favour of Arbitration" (2015) 31:6 Construction Law Letter